COR Connections | December 2023

Year End Summary

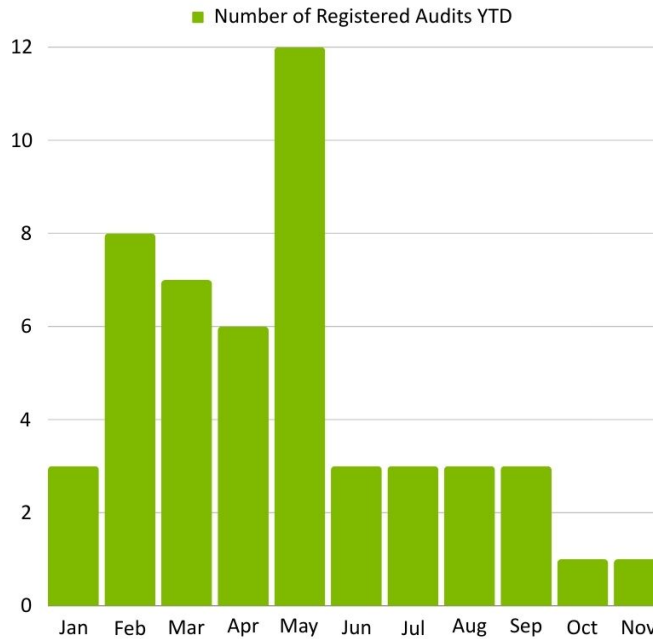

This month's edition of the COR Connections will be a summary of audits, courses, and feedback, to outline all the fantastic achievements our COR holders and auditors have made over the last year.

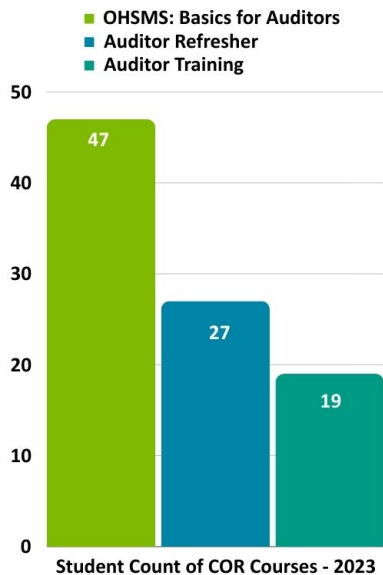

We've had another successful year of the COR program! There has been an increase in interest in the COR program and there have been some exciting changes here within our QA team. Overall, we are confident these changes have brought value to our COR holders and our auditors. Rest assured, we are consistently engaging in continuous improvement to ensure our response times are expedited.

Registered Audits by Month for 2023

Compared to previous years, we saw an increase in audits registered earlier in the year. We encourage this trend to continue! As our peak season is from October to December, registering your audits earlier in the year allows for an expedited registration process.
